Lewis M. Howell Candidate For County Supervisor

Lewis M. Howell

Albany City Councilman and Former Mayor Lewis M. Howell of 1079 Peralta has formally announced his candidacy for the post of Supervisor of Alameda County in the election in June, 1968.

Howell was one of those considered by Governor Ronald Reagan for the recent appointment to fill the vacancy left by the death of Supervisor Kent D. Pursel.

"I was amazed at the support I received from both Democrats and Republicans for the appointment," Howell said, "and decided that if I was not appointed, I would be a candidate in June."

Dean of Albany City Councilmen, Howell has served 15 years. He was mayor for seven years and a member of the finance committee 13 years. He was Albany representative to the League of California Cities and was formerly president of the East Bay division. He helped organize and served as vice chairman of the Alameda County Mayors Conference.

He served on the committee which set up the gas tax formula with the Board of Supervisors, now a regular allocation to cities in Alameda County. He negotiated with the Board of Supervisors for the first grant of $40,000.

Solano Project Architect Selected Tonight

The Solano Avenue Lighting and Beautification project in cooperation with the City of Albany and functioning as a project of the Albany Chamber of Commerce has reached the stage of architect selection.

The screening committee will meet at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the office of Administrative Officer James B. Turner at City Hall to select the architect, according to Chairman William I. Garren.

Members of the committee are Mayor Richard Clark; Turner, serving as advisory engineer; Joe Dagna, past president of the Chamber; John Pleich, landscape advisor; Garren, advisory architect, and Carl MacWilliams, representing Planning and Zoning commission.

Several factors have contributed to delaying the program, Garren said. They include:

Increasing traffic on Solano Avenue and the need to study street widening for the future city and the problem of financing now or in the future;

Relation of parking to convenient uses, the question of increasing parking and its relation to gross sales and sales tax revenues for the city; and

How the parking program will be financed, a problem to be studied by the architect appointed in relation to both Solano and San Pablo Avenues.

Building Permits Down from '66

For the first eight months of 1966, permits totalled $2,421,089. The total to the end of August in 1967 is $758,815, according to City Engineer James B. Turner.

Ray Construction Co. is building a medical office building at 1313 Solano for Dr. Harold B. Von Maren at a cost of $31,000. J. Villa and Sons are constructing a concrete block building at 636 San Pablo Ave. for Joe Rinella's use as an automotive glass installation shop at a cost of $30,000.

'Little Miss Flame' Will Also be 'Sweetest'

The Albany Chamber of Commerce committee in charge of Albany's 1967 "Sweetest Day" promotion next month decided Thursday to eliminate the "Sweetest Person" essay contest and grant that title to the little girl selected as "Little Miss Flame."

It was decided that if the essay contest were held, it would be absolutely necessary to utilize out-of-town judges and to set up definite guidelines for judging. It would have to be based either on number of nominations of one person or the quality of a single nomination, not both. The committee, after lengthy discussion, decided it would be simpler to let the little girl selected by ballot also serve as Albany's Sweetest Person.

Joe Dagna is chairman of the "Shop at Home" promotion with H. F. Call as co-chairman. Other members of the committee are Neil Corey and Harold Pavey. Richard McSheehy, fire prevention officer for the Albany Fire Department, also serves on the Chamber committee.

Any service club, civic organization or merchant may select a girl five to eight years old, who attends school in Albany, as a candidate for Little Miss Flame. Parents of girls also may enter their child. Those sponsors who do not have a child in mind and girls seeking the title will be matched so each little girl will have a sponsor.

Voting will be the same as last year. With each purchase, the customer may cast one vote for his favorite candidate. Places of business which do not issue cash register receipts will be provided with ballots to be given to patrons. Sealed ballot boxes and posters with pictures of all the girls (identified only by number) will be provided to participating merchants.

Sweetest Week will be Oct. 14-21. Ballot boxes will be picked up on Friday, Oct. 20. The girl will be named "Little Miss Flame" at the City Council meeting Monday, Oct. 23.

The Chamber of Commerce will have material and information on "Sweetest Week," including bumper strips. Interested merchants have been asked to call 525-1771 or visit the Chamber at 1108 Solano Ave. If they wish this special promotional material.

Albany Civil Service Board has announced open competitive examination for hoseman with the closing date for filing on Oct. 13. Salary range is from $614 to $764. Men ages 21-35 may apply. For information, phone 526-6116 or write 1000 San Pablo Ave., Albany, Gillum Freels, chairman.

Howell then changed his motion to ask Jensen if the facts in the story are true and for clarification. The motion passed unanimously.

Cabaret Ordinance May Go Back To Drawing Board

Many of Albany's cocktail lounge owners attended City Council meeting Monday night to protest inequities in Albany's Ordinance 67-07, the emergency cabaret ordinance passed last week.

J. J. Spain, vice president of Musicians' Union, Local 6, said he feels the ordinance discriminates against live musicians "as opposed to dead ones" on juke boxes and recording devices. He said it penalizes the businessman who wishes to improve business and employ more people. (Twenty musicians are employed in Albany.) He asked that it be revised so it is fair to all forms of

Does Smith Know Who Killed Judy?

Councilman Lewis Howell Monday night questioned an article concerning the Judy Williamson case published last Saturday in which Police Inspector Art Smith was quoted as saying he knows the identity of the murderer.

"People wonder if it is their next-door neighbor and worry about a killer running around loose," Howell said, moving that Council ask Chief Ralph Jensen if he knows the murderer.

"It would make the citizens feel better to have a direct statement from the Chief of Police," Howell said. "I've discussed the case with him many times and I've never heard him say they know who the person is."

Mayor Richard Clark questioned points of law involved. He asked, "Would they reveal the identity in advance of trial? Could the Chief be made to answer that?"

He agreed a statement such as Smith's in a newspaper could be very damaging and cause concern.

City Attorney Larry Saler, when asked for advice, said Council would have the authority to ask for clarification, but if there is not sufficient evidence to go before the Grand Jury, there is liability involved in naming people. If there is not enough evidence to go before a Grand Jury, in Saler's opinion, it would not be incumbent upon the Police Chief to answer Council.

Howell then changed his motion to ask Jensen if the facts in the story are true and for clarification. The motion passed unanimously.

Red Cross Needs Used Juice Cans

"Save your small juice cans and bring them to the Red Cross," (2116 Allston Way, Berkeley) urges Mrs. W. F. Harrison, Flower Chairman at the Berkeley chapter. Attractively painted or paper covered, these lowly containers become vases for fresh flowers which are taken each Tuesday to the men at Oak Knoll Naval Hospital. Mrs. Harrison's Flower committee arranges 150 bedside bouquets every week to lift the spirits of hospital patients, many of whom are Vietnam casualties. "Of course that doesn't begin to go around," she says. "We have to take turns supplying the different wards." These women also make 14 large bouquets for the lobby and two for the psychopathic ward. Until recently, flowers were taken on alternate weeks to elderly shut-ins in community convalescent hospitals, but this service had to be discontinued because of increased demands at Oak Knoll and lack of sufficient "woman-power" to serve both. "We hope to start again when we have more help," Mrs. Harrison said. Leave orange juice cans at the Berkeley Red Cross chapter and call 845-1430 if you can assist in arranging flowers on Tuesday mornings.

Groundbreaking Held For New Merritt College

By the fall of 1969, the new Merritt college is expected to open in a beautiful setting in the Oakland hills. Ground was broken for the new college, which will serve students from this area, on Wednesday morning with the Honorable William F. Knowland as guest speaker and civic leaders from the six participating communities in attendance. Mayors of Alameda, Albany, Berkeley, Emeryville, Oakland and Piedmont brought soil from their cities to pour into a planter containing a redwood tree which will be planted in the center of the campus. Dr. Edward H. Redford, Merritt president, expressed no sorrow at the prospect of leaving the outgrown, old quarters on Grove St. Albany's representative on the Peralta Junior College board, Mrs. Cheryl Kleinhammer, introduced Albany guests at the luncheon at the Edgewater. They included Superintendent of Schools Kenneth Forry and Joni Grisham, an Albany student at Merritt who assisted Mayor Richard Clark at the groundbreaking ceremonies. Mayor Clark had to leave at the conclusion of the ceremonies at the new site. When the new terraced, 120-acre campus opens, it is expected to serve 9,000 students. It is located between Redwood Road and Keller Avenue above Warren and MacArthur Freeway. When it is leveled, it will command a sweeping view of entire Bay Area.

Zugnoni Case

Interpretation of the City Charter caused general squirming of Council members when Peter Frank, attorney for Police Sgt. Emil Zugnoni, who was suspended last July by Police Chief Ralph Jensen for refusing to obey an order, demanded the case be heard in open Council meeting.

The attorney said the action was in violation of Section 49Q of the City Charter regarding suspensions and removals, which provides that Council may on recommendation of the Chief of the Department suspend not to exceed 30 days or fine not to exceed one month's pay.

Council generally concurred that Chief Jensen operated within his rights under Section 1 of the Charter, which allows the Chief of the department full freedom in action on such matters with the specific intent and spirit not to curtail or handicap the responsible administrative officer in securing efficient service.

Councilman George Hein said he believes Jensen took action under Section 1 and doesn't believe Council should intervene. He said the Chief acted legally and properly and that Section 1 does not involve Council.

Mayor Clark asked Council to place the matter on the agenda for next Monday, although it would be only a discussion. He said Council is only quasi-judicial.

Hein asked what would be gained by discussing it next Monday.

"The proper place is before the courts," he said.

He added that they had held a personnel session for about an hour before Council meeting Monday and "didn't hear one thing. . . They wanted an open hearing. This is against our procedure."

Councilman Lewis Howell said he hoped the City Attorney and attorney for Zugnoni would work for a closed session.

"It has always been my intent, whenever personnel is involved, to have closed sessions. . . In public meetings, personalities are discussed. This is a small city and everyone knows each other. It's better to have a closed session."

On the motion to place it on the agenda, the vote was 4-1 with Hein voting no.

In other matters Monday, Council:

REFERRED to City Attorney Larry Saler and the insurance carrier a claim for damages from Thomas and Patricia Rounds for $75,110 (involving false arrest); to

SORRY WE have to miss what promises to be a great program tomorrow night sponsored by Albany High PTA. A distinguished panel will be speaking on the "Rights and Responsibilities of a Juvenile," a timely topic if there ever was one. (Tomorrow is the date set for major surgery for our oldest daughter at Alta Bates, so that's where we'll be.)

FROM BOB DENNIS: The amount of sleep required by the average person is just 10 minutes more. An obituary in an Irish paper: BARRETT, Christopher Willimas, deeply regretted by his brother, daughter, sons, daughters-in-law and grandchildren.

A MYSTERY was solved the other day during a conversation with Ken Forry, superintendent of schools. He said many children who had been swimming at Albany Pool were suffering from red eyes this summer. One of these was the daughter of Dr. Jerome F. Thomas, professor of sanitary chemistry at Cal. She told her dad he ought to investigate the water, which he did, discovering the chemical balance was not right. He reported the difficulty and the problem has been dealt with. At the last Board of Education meeting he was retained in an advisory capacity in establishing procedures for maintaining appropriate chemical balances in the pool. We had a little miss red eyes at our house who has improved right along with improvement of the water at the pool.

JOHNNIE GRISHAM returned to work Monday after an extended sick leave from the office of Administrative Officer Jim Turner at City Hall.

LETTER

Editor, the Times:

I am sorry that the Governor saw fit to veto bill AB 504. Aid for education of University Village students. On the other hand I feel that to ask the Governor to sign this bill is an insult to his intelligence, knowing the inequities that exist here in Albany in our present school system.

While it is true, the cost of educating the children from University Village is high and we should justly receive some relief from the State, I feel that through no fault of our own we have an obligation to these children, but we do not, and I repeat DO NOT have an obligation to educate according to figures I received from the Albany Superintendent of Schools approximately one hundred students who have been invited here from other districts at the expense of Albany homeowners, at the (1965-1966) rate of $374 per pupil. These figures were published in the Albany Times, August 23, 1967, by Superintendent Kenneth M. Forry. This cost to the homeowners of Albany figures up to $37,400. I understand from the Superintendent the rate will even be higher this year.

Even though this subject has been brought to the attention time and time again not only by myself and other citizens, but by the Albany Homeowners and Taxpayers Association, Mr. Forry and members of the Board of Education prefer to ignore it. I'm asking you the Homeowners of Albany. Do you think they have your best interest at heart?

Y-INDIAN GUIDES

A special meeting will be held at the Y Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 7:30 p.m. for fathers whose sons are in the first, second and third grades, and who are interested in doing something with them. A full explanation of the Father and Son Y-Indian Guide program will be made and opportunities presented for participation.

The only reason I can see for inviting these students from out of the district at the expense of you the Homeowner is to keep the enrollment high in our schools.

I think the inequities that exist are created by the Albany School Board and your school superintendent, who keep pushing your taxes higher and higher while encouraging higher enrollment from other districts at the expense of you the Albany homeowners.

Reunion in Hawaii

Six Servicemen, Albany Councilman Meet in Hawaii

Six young servicemen and one lone city councilman, all from Albany, held a grand reunion recently, 2,500 miles from home, at the Reef hotel on the beach, at Waikiki.

The six servicemen were David Minogio, Michael Fahmie, Stephen Liner, Ralph Dempsey, Charles "Chuck" Call, and David McCain. The lone councilman was H. F. "Red" Call.

Call had originally planned the trip to visit his son, "Chuck," who is stationed at Pearl Harbor, but when he heard that other boys from Albany were also stationed in the Islands he started plans to get them together. Most of the boys were unaware that the others were in Hawaii, so it was a big surprise to them when they all turned up at the hotel to meet Councilman Call.

All the boys had been fellow students at Albany High school in the last few years; they range in age from 18 to 22 years. Some had been in Little League together, some had had paper routes together, while others had been fellow members of Cub and Boy Scouts, and other Albany youth organizations. Now they are all in the United States Armed Forces. David McCain is the only Marine. Others are in the U.S. Navy.

After a sumptuous meal and entertainment, the rest of the evening was spent in catching up on what had happened to them since leaving Albany. Councilman Call reports: "All your boys looked fine and were anxious to hear the news of their hometown. Many have been receiving the Albany Times and were kept informed from it, but they all stated they would like to have more mail from their friends in Albany."

Anyone interested in writing to these boys may obtain their addresses from "Red" at Albany Jewelers, 823 San Pablo Avenue.

Square Dancing Offered at Y

Local YMCA Director John Carhart says the class will learn round dancing as well as traditional square dances. "It's a program with built-in fun," Carhart said, "and we hope to see a lot of couples with us each Thursday night." All classes will run from 8:10-10 p.m.

There will be a meeting for dads and sons next Wednesday, Sept. 27, at Cornell school auditorium. Entertainment for the meeting, from 7 to 8:30 p.m., will include two guests from the 49ers, two short movies and some tips from the pros.

Don Dupin of the Albany Recreation department will coach any boy who has registered at school playgrounds after school or on Saturday mornings.

Registration closes Friday, Oct. 6. The contest begins at 9 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 7, at AHS Cougar (Feeny) Field.

Free PP&K lapel pins and tips booklets are given when boys register at Jim Woulfe Ford.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic Ave.

The usual happy group of Seniors were present Thursday to enjoy bingo, community singing, card playing and a general good time.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of Lenore Traylor, a member of the group, who passed away last week at the age of 95. She was a teacher and some of her work was at Cornell school in Albany. Although handicapped in her later years by a severe hearing loss, she kept up her attendance almost to the very last in many organizations of which she was a member.

She once said to me, "You know, I have to keep up my appearance for I have to compete with all you 50, 60 70 and 80 year old youths."

Community service group, meeting Fridays, are dressing Barbie dolls to be given to underprivileged children of Alameda County at Christmas time. Come in and see some of the cute garments that are being made. One male member proved very adept at making a doll outfit as well as garments for a living doll, his wife.

All members are asked to register if they expect to attend the fifth anniversary celebration of the opening of the Senior Center at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 1. This must be done to insure plenty of refreshments.

For additional information, call LA 6-1601.

Vista PTA Sets Special Night

On Tuesday night, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m., Vista school will hold its annual "Back to School Night."

All parents and friends of Vista students are urged to attend and meet Robert E. Shogren, the new principal of Vista and MacGregor schools. Those attending will also have an opportunity to meet the members of Vista's teaching staff.

After visiting their child's classroom, and discussing the program for the coming year with the teacher, parents and friends are invited to attend the general meeting of Vista PTA in the kindergarten room.

Films of last year's fund raising activities will be shown. Included in the films are the weekly cupcake and hot dog sales with the students participating.

The PTA program and schedule for the coming year will also be presented.

Soccer, 'The Go Game' Comes to Albany

For the first time an Albany team is being formed for the Alameda-Contra Costa Junior Soccer League. The first team will compete in the 15-18 year old division, and all boys in Albany in that age group are invited to come out Saturday, Sept. 23, at 10 a.m. All of those interested in the sport, including other adults or younger children, are to meet in the baseball bleachers at Memorial Park. Other teams may be developed depending on the interest of the community.

Although some fundamentals will be explained Saturday, soccer is a game that you can play almost right away, and the emphasis will be on play for everyone. Size and weight are not important factors in this game, and those who are too light for football or too short for basketball are especially invited to come out. Special events, films and professional guests are planned for the weeks to come. First special event will be attendance at the U.C. Alumni game a week later.

The only equipment required by the boys is a pair of tennis or gym shoes. Shorts are helpful, but not necessary. Further information may be obtained from Clay Berling, 524-4808 or 841-6171, or Alex Schlessinger, 526-7515.

Plaque for Service

ALBANY LIONS CLUB Press Chairman Carl J. MacWilliams, right, presents Senator Lewis F. Sherman with a plaque for "devoted service" following a report on his first session in Sacramento by the Senator at the club meeting last Thursday evening.

Sherman Reports

Sen. Sherman, Mayor Clark Honored by Lions Club

Senator Lewis F. Sherman reported on his first legislative session in Sacramento last Thursday night, when he was guest speaker for Ladies Night of the Albany Lions club at Serb's.

When he was finished, he was presented with a plaque for "devoted service" by Program Chairman Carl J. MacWilliams.

Mayor Richard Clark, who came to introduce the senator, but had to leave early, received a similar award.

In introducing Sherman, Clark said Albany should give him a "hero's welcome" because of the outstanding job the senator performed for the city in his first session.

"All he's done for us in the legislature brings back my faith," Clark said. "If there's a loyalty oath for Democrats vs. Republicans in 1968, it will really put me to the test." Sherman is Republican; Clark, Democrat.

Sherman also paid tribute to Clark: "... He talks about my dedication. ... He's up there working although he has to make a living. ... He is sacrificing time, effort and money for the benefit of Albany and its citizens. In my opinion, he has done a fabulous job. I can confidently say that in the whole area, almost a million people, no mayor or council is more zealous or dedicated than Dick Clark and this Council. ..."

The senator expressed his disappointment that AB 504 for tax relief for Albany schools did not pass. He said John J. Miller's AB 504 passed handily in the Assembly and passed the Senate with only one dissenting vote. He said Governor Reagan vetoed every single bill which had a monetary provision not in the budget. One bill vetoed would have cost only $100, he said, but the whole group, totalling about $40 million, was vetoed. Sherman said he has been assured by the Governor's office and those close to the Governor that Miller and Sherman will have an opportunity to discuss Albany's problem with the Governor and get a letter in ahead of the budget to assure passage and signature next year.

Sherman said he almost "lost his hair" over another Albany bill, SB 1064, which would have clarified the intent of the law regarding Albany's bayfill.

"I thought this was a simple, little non-controversial bill," he said, "but when it hit the hopper, an atom bomb would have been small by comparison." He said it was sent to interim committee, a polite way to kill it,

Terry Culley Completes Advanced Army Training

Army Private Terry W. Culley, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. William

W. Culley, Jr., 830 Madison St., Albany, has completed nine weeks of advanced infantry training at Ft. Polk, La. His last week of training was spent in guerrilla warfare exercises. During his guerrilla training, he lived under simulated Vietnam conditions for five days, fighting off night attacks and conducting raids on "enemy" villages. He was taught methods of removing booby traps, setting ambushes, and avoiding enemy ambushes.

Other specialized training included small unit tactics, reading, land mine warfare, communications, and firing the M-60 machine gun and inch rocket launcher.

Sherman said he serves on five committees: judiciary, business and professional, public health, elections and reapportions (vice chairman) and fish and game, which he described as a "fascinating committee."

He said the session just completed is the longest in the history of California due to Proposition 1A. Another provision of 1A, which increased legislative salaries, has made legislators more independent and less subject to influence of lobbyists and pressure groups, he said.

Sherman said he is serving as vice chairman of a joint committee of the Assembly and Senate on Regional Government. Four assemblymen and four Senators are serving on this committee.

"When you consider that in the next decade there will be a solid city from San Francisco to San Diego, you can imagine the problems of this committee," he said.

At the conclusion of Sherman's address, City Attorney-Lion Larry Saler reported that the press covering the State Capitol had voted Sherman one of two outstanding freshman legislators.
